1. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1-7, 18-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tani et al 5,606,160. Tani discloses an apparatus in which a processor controls a memory 12 that has a first and second area (col 6 lines 35+). It is disclosed in column 9 that serial data is converted to parallel data and this parallel data is then stored. It is inherent that a second type of data (i.e.

parallel) requires a second writing mode. It is disclosed in column 9 lines 45+ that a proper flag is set (i.e. stored) depending upon a proper or improper read of the data in memory. It is old and well known that memory can be written to at different speeds. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to write information to the second memory area either faster or slower as claimed in claims 3 and 4. As no specific encryption method is claimed or disclosed, it is also inherent that all data is necessarily encrypted as simple binary representation of data is in a sense encrypted information. The evidence of the claims choosing either faster or slower, and the lack of criticality specified as to the specific speed is indication of engineering design choice. The specific data of claim 10 does not further define the method or apparatus of storing the data and therefore is not given patentable weight. Tani does not disclose that the main memory 12 is a non-volatile memory. However, Tani does disclose that non-volatile memory is known, see non-volatile memory 13 for example. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use a non-volatile memory as the main memory 12 in Tani thereby helping to ensure that stored information is not accidentally erased.

5. Claims 11-17 are allowable over the prior art of record.
6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest in conjunction with all the other claimed limitations, setting the flag in a first area of the non-volatile storage medium to determine whether an update of the second area of the non-volatile storage medium has been performed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Tani 6,011,880 discloses a first and second area in a memory.
